

DHARMA WORDS

the great dragon frolics among
the new green of spring;
the view from the mountain in all ten directions
is bright and clear.

dear founders,

you pointed out the way to prajna paramita — showed us how the great compassionate ones use the many hands and eyes.
without hesitation,
you roared the lions roar,
never wavered in samadhi,
moved rocks,
served tea,
slurped the thin white noodles of enlightenment.

Eeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee....

the complete function is everywhere.
how could there be any hindrance?

—Egyoku Nakao
Founder's Service March 14, 2015